Kevin is a versatile, scrappy, talented off-guard who can play both the 2 and 3 positions. Kevin is arguably the hardest working player on the Thailand National Team (and has European citizenship). He can guard multiple positions, score both inside and out, and will do the dirty work that every team needs to be done. Kevin buys into defense and prefers to guard and shut down the opposing team's best player. Offensively, his 3-point shot, ball handling, and finishing have all improved drastically over the past couple of seasons and are now very efficient. Kevin also knows how to use his body, plays very physical, and never stops moving which makes him difficult to guard. He's an energizer bunny with skills. In other words, he's every coach's dream.
