Team player who prioritizes his team game over individual game. A pass first point guard who can play combo guard. With the ability to take charge of the game at most given times. Great off the dribble shooter as well as, catch and shooting. A high IQ player with tremendous court vision and a player who loves to create deflections at high rate. Great player for playing in passing lanes and on ball defense. Has played at the big stages and will continue to produce efficient performances on a daily basis. Day in and day out, hard working player who is certainly coachable.
